Voices that Care is a fundraising concert that benefits the Room 217 Foundation. Driven by the connections of Room 217 Board member Murray McLauchlan, and hosted by Denise Donlon, iconic Canadian talent as well as emerging young artists are highlighted in an evening of top-drawer entertainment. The evening includes a cocktail reception, dessert at intermission, a lucky-key contest, and a VIP reception post-concert. Patrons receive a tax-receipt for a portion of their ticket cost.

With the help of generous donors, Room 217 is able to honour exceptional caregivers from various care settings i.e. adult day programs, long-term care, hospice, private homes.
